

MONTSERRAT, THE EASY WAY

Guide for your visit

How to get to Montserrat

We connect Barcelona to Montserrat in just 90 minutes. Once an hour, every day.

At the FGC station in Plaça Espanya you can take any train on the R5 Manresa line.

Get off at Monistrol de Montserrat station, where the rack railway is waiting to take you to the Sanctuary of Montserrat.

| TIMETABLEBarcelona → Montserrat   |                       |
|---------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| DepartureBarcelonaPI. Espanya | ArrivalMontserrat |
| 08.36                                 | 10.08                 |
| 09.36                                 | 11.08                 |
| 10.36                                 | 12.08                 |
| 11.36                                 | 13.08                 |
| 12.36                                 | 14.08                 |
| 13.36                                 | 15.08                 |
| 14.36                                 | 16.08                 |
| 15.36                                 | 17.08                 |
| 16.36                                 | 18.08                 |
| 17.36                               | 19.08               |

| TIMETABLEMontserrat → Barcelona |                                     |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| DepartureMontserrat             | ArrivalBarcelonaPI. Espanya |
| 08.15                               | 09.45                               |
| 09.15                               | 10.45                               |
| 10.15                               | 11.45                               |
| 11.15                               | 12.45                               |
| 12.15                               | 13.45                               |
| 13.15                               | 14.45                               |
| 14.15                               | 15.45                               |
| 15.15                               | 16.45                               |
| 16.15                               | 17.45                               |
| 17.15                               | 18.45                               |
| 18.15                               | 19.45                               |
| 19.15                             | 20.45                             |

** These trains do not run every day. You can find out which days they run from the information boards or by asking FGC staff.